Sev-Rend Promotes Jeremy Andrews to National Sales Director

Collinsville, IL – [July 29, 2025] – Sev-Rend is proud to announce the promotion of Jeremy Andrews to the position of National Sales Director. This strategic move reflects Sev-Rend’s continued commitment to leadership development and customer-focused growth across its flexible packaging and tagging solutions.

Since joining Sev-Rend in 2023, Jeremy has served as Director of Sales – East, bringing with him fifteen years of sales experience and team leadership within the packaging industry. His ability to foster strong client relationships, drive sales performance, and deliver packaging solutions tailored to customer needs has made him an invaluable part of the Sev-Rend team.

“Jeremy’s leadership and deep understanding of our customers’ evolving needs have played a significant role in Sev-Rend’s growth,” said Rob Williams, CEO/Owner. “His promotion to National Sales Director positions us for continued success as we expand our footprint and develop innovative, sustainable packaging solutions for the fresh produce industry and beyond.”

In his new role, Jeremy will oversee national sales operations, support strategic account development, and lead Sev-Rend’s experienced and devoted sales team in driving results and delivering value to customers across the country.

“It’s an honor to step into this role,” said Jeremy Andrews. “Sev-Rend is a company that truly values its customers, team, and innovation. I am excited to help guide our sales strategy on a national level and continue building partnerships that move the industry forward.”

Please join us in congratulating Jeremy Andrews on his well-earned promotion.
